

ZOOTALES

Storytime with the Zoo

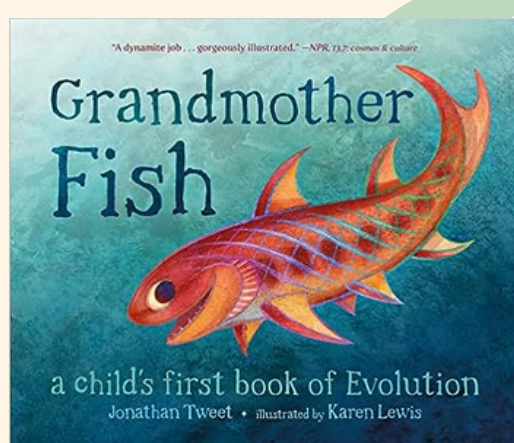

What Do You Do If You Work at the Zoo?

Going to the zoo is so exciting! You might see penguins swimming underwater, snakes sunning in the reptile house, or giraffes eating leaves out of high trees. You might even see people at the zoo, ones just like you! Learn about the people who keep zoo animals safe, healthy, and happy. From cuddling a baby kangaroo to trimming elephant toenails, zookeepers work hard and do some pretty wacky things to take care of the incredible animals we see.

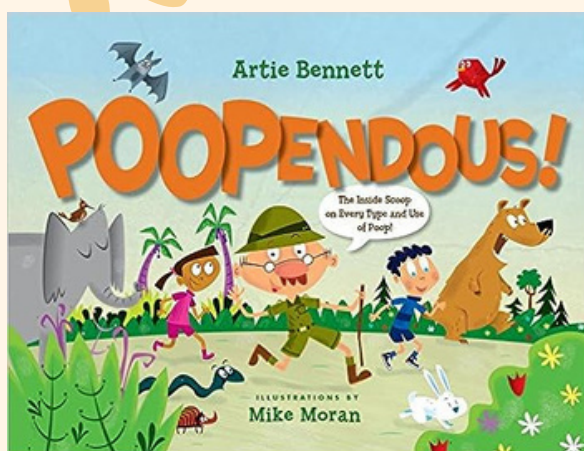

Grandmother Fish

Told in an engaging call and response text where a child can wiggle like a fish or hoot like an ape and brought to life by vibrant artwork, Grandmother Fish takes children and adults through the history of life on our planet and explains how we are all connected.

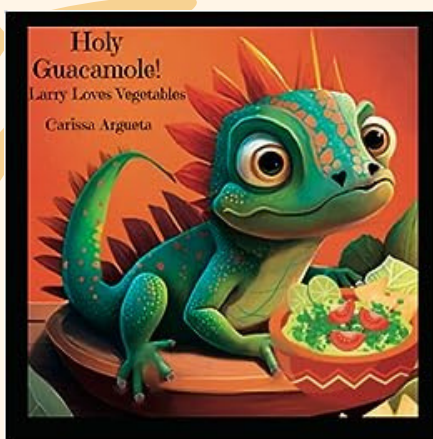

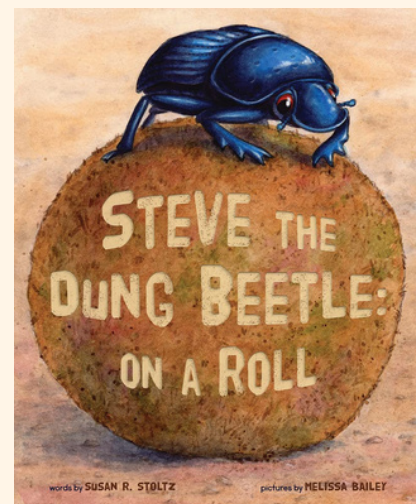

Poopendous!

Get the inside scoop on every type of poop! In hilarious verses, with eye-popping illustrations, Poopendous! relates the many, often remarkable uses of poop throughout the world while paying homage to its prolific producers, from cats to bats to wombats! So pick up your pooper-scooper and come along for a riotously rib-tickling ride. You just may agree that poop is truly quite .. poopendous!

Steve the Dung Beetle on a Roll

Steve is hard at work rolling a ball of poo past the river, over the hills, through the trees, and all the way to his home. Along the way he meets many of his animal friends, like the elephant, giraffe, warthog, and others. They all ask him the same thing, "Hey Steve! Why are you rolling that ball of poo?" Join Steve as he teaches all of his friends why he is constantly rolling poo, how it helps each of them, and why his work is so important for the environment.

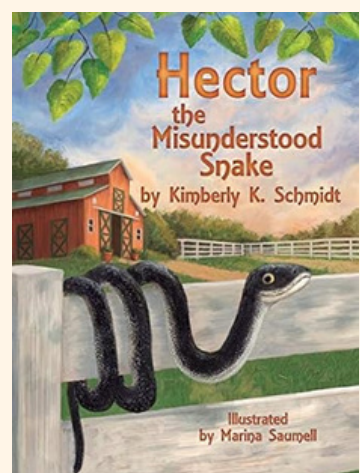

Holy Guacamole! Larry Loves Vegetables

Larry is a lizard; other lizards laugh at Larry because he doesn't eat insects. In this colorful children's book, Larry discovers guacamole and his love for vegetables. Science and Spanish come together when Larry meets a boy, Ernesto, who speaks Spanish and several basic Spanish words are introduced.

Hector the Misunderstood Snake

Take a peek into the lives of the animals at Grayson Farm and meet Hector, a young black snake. He desperately wants a friend, but learns quickly that others do not like him simply because he is a snake. The themes of treating others well, regardless of how they look on the outside, and being brave and selfless in frightening situations will resonate with the young reader and adults alike. Hector the Misunderstood Snake is a charming and insightful tale featuring beautiful illustrations, delightful barnyard characters, and one kind and gentle snake.

Miles and Miles of Reptiles

The Cat in the Hat travels the globe to explore the world of reptiles! Along the way, we learn the characteristics of reptiles, information about each group, fun facts about individual species, and much, much more. Cool creatures featured include komodo dragons, chameleons, geckos, cobras, leatherback turtles, frilled lizards—a virtual Who's Who of the World's Most Remarkable Reptiles.

